

Online & In-Studio Prenatal Yoga

6-Week Prenatal Yoga Class Series

Tuesday, July 20th – August 24th | 5:30-6:30 PM

Want to feel more confident & prepared for birth?

- Cultivate stability in body, mind and spirit through yoga as you prepare for your baby.
- Engage in self-care that helps you feel your best and prepares you for labor and delivery.
- Address common pregnancy concerns like low back, hip and sacrum instability and pain, upper back, neck and shoulder tension, digestive issues, sleep, and fatigue.
- Be among women who share this journey for your hour of “mom” time.

This class includes breath-centered yoga postures adapted for pregnancy, breathing practices, reflections, and guided relaxation.

“I definitely feel I benefited from yoga. I was able to get through labor without any pain medication. My pain management was focused breathing with the help of my husband encouraging me to continue breathing through each contraction. I also used a birthing ball, walking, and sat in a tub. Thank you for teaching prenatal yoga, it truly helped!” - McKayla
